JOIN CHEF UMBERTO MENGHI

ON A FABULOUS 11-DAY CANADA & NEW ENGLAND CRUISE

Silver Whisper | September 19 - 30, 2022

He cooks, he makes wine, he runs a cooking school – and his ambition is boundless. A feast of a man, Vancouver restaurateur, Umberto Menghi, is one of this country's most celebrated chefs. Join Umberto on this special Culinary Voyage sailing the beautiful ports of Canada & New England.

Reward yourself with Mother Nature's natural pyrotechnics on this autumnal cruise through New England. Starting in the Big Apple, wend your way north to enjoy one of North America's most spectacular shows. Rhode Island, Cape Cod, Boston and Maine all play their part, with each destination showing more impressive colours than the last. Canada's east coast offers history and serenity in equimeasure and makes this cruise nothing short of poetry.

Guests will also have the option of a 2-night pre cruise package in New York and/or 2 Night post cruise package in Montreal with Umberto.

Born in Pontedera, Tuscany, Umberto was sixteen years old when he enrolled in a hotel school in Rome, beginning a life-long commitment to food and the world of great restaurants. After more training in London and Paris, he moved to Canada in 1967, and headed west in 1969. It was a yellow house on the corner of Hornby and Pacific that made Umberto Menghi a household name across Vancouver. Giardino's exciting re-entry into the downtown core of Vancouver is less than a block away from the original yellow house.

Umberto brings a wealth of knowledge and expertise to Canada's culinary landscape. In addition to penning five best-selling cookbooks featuring authentic Tuscan recipes from his homeland, Umberto also hosted a popular cooking show, "The Elegant Appetite", and opened a cooking school and luxury resort in Ripoli di Lari, Tuscany named Villa Delia, after his mother.

NEW YORK, NY, USA

So good they named it twice, New York, is a cultural powerhouse like no other. Liberally scattered with familiar landmarks, world-leading museums, and with an atmosphere and infectious energy found nowhere else, any visit to this one-of-a-kind cinematic city is a frantic, fascinating feast for the senses. Endless opportunities and experiences await between its audacious skyscrapers. Leading museums and galleries like the MET, the Guggenheim and Museum of Modern Art add cultural intrigue matched by few others, while the flashing lights of Broadway mark the pinnacle of careers and provide world-class entertainment. At night the city lights up with shows, and roof-top restaurants serve up innovative dishes above the glowing, buzzing streets below.

NEWPORT, RHODE ISLAND, USA

A prime slice of New England coastline, Newport serves up colonial splendour, striking seascapes, and some of the freshest seafood around. One of America's most historic cities, drop in on the oldest library in the country, visit an incredible fortress city, and wander beside spectacular summer houses. With wild beaches, wineries, breweries and festivals for every season, Newport has lost none of its enticing allure. The fresh, ocean air of Newport was much sought after during the Gilded Age, as the rich and powerful made their mark, building grand and stately mansions overlooking the waves. Or try great Newport seafood in the bustling eateries of repurposed wharves - serving up Rhode Island specials like steamed lobster and clams.

CAPE COD CANAL TRANSIT, USA

Because Silversea's ships are so small, this Cape Cod Canal Transit is a rare must for any travel savvy guest. With two fixed bridges over the canal, clearance is a problem for bigger ships. The surrounding scenic spectacle is something truly to behold. With the crowds gone and the weather turning cooler and the leaves turning colour, the compelling charm of the canal is legendary.

BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS, USA

Historic yet revolutionary, few places embody the American dream quite as well. Skyscrapers mingle harmoniously with cobble streets, and every footstep here promises new tales of legend, daring and valour, as you walk through the pages of history and immerse yourself in the stories of one of the USA's oldest cities. Wander across incendiary sites like the Boston Massacre Site, and Bunker Hill - where the first shots of the American Revolutionary War were fired, eventually leading to independence from British rule. You'll also find plenty of acclaimed New England seafood to sample, including famous buttery clam chowder.

BAR HARBOR, MAINE, USA

One of the first spots in the USA to see the first slivers of honey-coloured light each morning, Bar Harbor was the escape of choice for the elite and artistic during the 19th century. They flocked here to indulge in cool, salty sea breezes and sweeping coastal scenery, and left behind a scattering of elaborate, soft-hued mansions in their wakes. Bar Harbor is all about getting tactile with the amazing nature on your doorstep, and whether it's biking, rock climbing or sailing, there's an activity for every inclination here. shared.

HALIFAX, NOVA SCOTIA, CANADA

A city that thrives on a diet of music, outdoor events and ocean-faring history, Nova Scotia's capital - and Atlantic Canada's largest conurbation

- oozes salt-licked charm. The star-shaped fortress of Halifax Citadel sits above the city, while down below, Halifax revolves around its bustling harbour. The shorefront boardwalk invites you on a gentle stroll along the waves, wandering back through Halifax's history. The Canadian Museum of Immigration waits at Pier 21 and was the doorway to a country of opportunity for so many - with over a million immigrants taking their first footsteps into Canada here.

SYDNEY, NOVA SCOTIA, CANADA

Surrounded by raw ocean and gorgeous coastal scenery, Cape Breton island's only city is a remote and awe-inspiring place. Formed around a former steel plant, Sydney now thrives on welcoming visitors, ushering them into the very heart of beautiful Nova Scotia. A place of thrilling, undulating coastal drives, pretty historic colonial houses dating back to the 1780s, and craggy coastal walks, Sydney is effortlessly easy on the eye. Get an insight into the region's military past, brought to life at the Fortress of Louisbourg - a massive, reconstructed French fortified city, where soldiers clank along the streets and artisans stir thick bowls of melted chocolate.

CHARLOTTETOWN, PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND, CANADA

Known as the birthplace of Canada, owing to its role as host of the conference that would eventually lead to the formation of the Canadian Confederation - Charlottetown is a celebration of all things Great White North. Perched just offshore on Prince Edward Island, there's a small-town charm to the locals' genuine smiles that is instantly disarming. Despite its capital status, the city's welcoming demeanour, pretty timber lighthouses and low-key coastal location, make Charlottetown an easy-going, idyllic island escape.

GASPÉ, QUEBEC, CANADA

Set on the rugged, windswept shores of the Saint Lawrence River in the south of Quebec lies the province of Gaspé. Like much of the surrounding region, Gaspé offers outstanding scenery, hundreds of colonies of Northern Gannets and colourful cottages perched upon rocky outposts. Its claim to fame is that it is named "the birthplace of Canada" as French explorer Jacques Cartier landed here on his voyage across the Atlantic in 1534.

SAGUENAY, QUEBEC, CANADA

The gateway to the Saguenay Fjord, the city lies at the intersection of a triad of sprawling national parks, amid some of North America's most impressive scenery. Embark on adventures to witness leaping waterfalls, forest-clad fjord banks, and whales crashing athletically offshore. Learn more of Saguenay's heritage, with a tour of the picturesque pulp mill, which dates back to the 1800s, and now houses a museum.

QUEBEC CITY, QUEBEC, CANADA

Established by the French settler Samuel de Champlain before the British landed on these shores, Quebec City - initially known as New France - is one of North America's oldest cities. Towering over the banks of the Saint-Lawrence River, Quebec City relishes in details and eccentricities, and has reams of rich history and beautiful architecture - like the famous Château Frontenac. The 400-year-old, fortified city is unique to North America and a celebrated UNESCO World Heritage Site.
