Day 1 Vienna, AUS (Embarkation)

Welcome to Vienna! Your Ship is Ready for boarding. Enjoy Dinner onboard as you sail for Melk in the Evening.

Day 2 Melk, AUS - Ybbs

Melk Abbey is one of the most magnificent examples of marble, gilded wood, stucco and finely mastered frescoes. Built in 1746 by order of the Benedictine monks, the monastery is perched on a rock nearly 200 feet / 60 meters above the ground. When you stand on the Altane (the great terrace of the monastery) the view of the Danube and the town of Melk almost brings tears to your eyes with emotion. What a view!

Ybbs, AUS

The small Community of Ybbs is a favorite for guests searching for peace and quiet. Find a Heurigen – an open air wine restaurant to relax and enjoy

Day 3 Linz, AUS

Linz? Often, the only things that come to mind are "Linzer Torte" and Mozart's Linz Symphony. The city is truly underestimated, with its baroque main square and magnificent old town. Do you love a good market? Then Linz is your town, boasting eleven farmers markets and two Christmas Markets. One, the "Urfahrner Market" takes place in both the Spring and Fall. Shopping anyone?

Day 4 Linz, AUS - Passau, GER

Sail to Passau in the Morning. The city sits at the confluence of three rivers, the Danube, Inn and Ilz, which flow together in the city. The fortress Veste Oberhaus houses the museum and the Dom features a great organ.

Day 5 Passau, GER

Passau is first and foremost a university town. That is why it is young, vibrant and full of life. Passau has quite an amount of character thanks to the prevalence of Baroque and Gothic architecture including many beautiful churches and cathedrals as well as the Veste Oberhaus, a fortress since the Middle Ages.

Day 6 Mauthausen, AUS Grein, AUS

Mauthausen: Explore the Austrian countryside with a visit to Steyr or St. Florian.

Grein: The rococo theatre in Grein was built in 1793 solely to provide a little diversion for the guests passing through. It is located in the middle of the enchanted old town and is still preserved. Its wooden hall is situated in today's town hall. You have to have seen it. And then there is Greinsburg Castle with its maritime museum. A perfect overview of the history of navigation on the Danube!

Day 7 Vienna, AUS

This is the city of classical music. It's Mozart and Strauss. It's street art on a sandy beach and fun in the countryside. It's bohemia and bourgeoisie and the finest baroque. And of course Art Nouveau.

Day 8 Vienna, AUS

Disembarkation. Your Cruise ends with breakfast this morning.
